

1. A length of dental floss run through all the stitches of a single row when working a complex pattern is called a:
 - a. rip cord
 - b. zip line
 - c. life line
 - d. waste yarn
2. One method of working short-row heels in socks is called the:
 - a. George heel
 - b. Tank heel
 - c. Sherman heel
 - d. Hudson heel
3. The Japanese word that refers to folding tying or stitching fabric before dyeing it that is being used in felting now is:
 - a. Shibui
 - b. Kykuit
 - c. Shibori
 - d. Kimoto
4. The process of taking a finished item and wetting and shaping it before letting it dry is called:
 - a. Clocking
 - b. Finishing
 - c. Blocking
 - d. Fulling
5. When slipping stitches while working a decrease, you always slip them as if to purl.
TRUE
FALSE
6. Working a gauge swatch is only important if you are a tight knitter.
TRUE
FALSE
7. A pocket or heel that you add after finishing the garment is called an afterthought.
TRUE
FALSE
8. It's legal to make a copy of a knitting or crochet pattern and give it to a friend.
TRUE
FALSE
9. Kiwi Knitting Company was established in 2005.
TRUE
FALSE
10. When working a decrease, the stitch that the right needle enters first is the stitch that will be on top of the finished decrease.
TRUE
FALSE

NAME-

PHONE NUMBER-